

Joseph F. Lintzenich

September 22, 1955 - August 24, 2020

Joseph F. Lintzenich, 64, of Evansville, passed away Monday, August 24, 2020 at Deaconess Hospital Gateway Campus.

Joe was born September 22, 1955 and led a joy filled life. His dad, Henry Lintzenich, died when Joe was just three years old, yet Joe would always say "Pops taught me that". That left his mother, Dorothy to raise him along with his five siblings. His sister, Martha Lamkin and brother, Michael Lintzenich preceded him in death, but he loved being with his sister, Kathleen (David) Halbig, brothers, Stephen and David (Debbie) and brother-in-law, Ron Lamkin who cherished his cheerful spirit. Joe loved his nieces, Susan Lamkin, Dava Jo (Jason) McKinsey and Margaret Halbig; nephews, Don (Melanie) Lamkin, Daniel (Stacey) Lintzenich, Michael (Andrea) Halbig, Joe (Lauren) Halbig and Matt Halbig; great nieces, Gracie McKinsey, Kate Halbig and Cassidy Lamkin and great nephews, Devin, Connor and Garrett Lintzenich, Warren, Oliver, Henry, Vincent and Marshall Halbig.

Joe was a lot of fun in his youth. He played football and baseball for Mater Dei High School. He loved his friends who introduced him to a good life like Tom Head, Sam Schmitt and Jim Farny. Joe loved his work as a salesman in the welding industry meeting great friends RC, Casey, Linda and Kim. He looked forward to vacationing in Avalon, New Jersey, going to the Masters, fishing trips and race car events. He loved watching sports, especially the St. Louis Cardinals, St. Louis Blues and Green Bay Packers. He enjoyed trips to the casino and listening to rock and roll music. You give him a song and he knew all of the lyrics. One of Joe's highlights was his Sunday routine; breakfast with his brothers at Dave's house, then dinner with Dave, Debbie, Dava, Jason and Gracie. Debbie's brother, Tom used to come before he moved to Florida and the two of them loved to tease one another.

Joe was a faithful member of St. Boniface Catholic Church. There will be a Mass of Christian Burial held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, August 29, 2020 at St. Boniface Catholic Church, 418 N. Wabash Ave, Rev. John Brosmer officiating. Entombment will take place in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 9:30 AM until service time on Saturday at St. Boniface Church.

Memorial contributions may be made to St. Boniface Parish, C/O St. Agnes Church, 1600 Glendale Ave, Evansville, IN 47712.

Condolences may be made online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

“ When I moved to Evansville to start work at Mead Johnson and marry Sam, Joe was one of the first friends of Sam's I met. He served as best man at our wedding and took the job so seriously! But one of my favorite pictures from our wedding was Joe removing my garter. He had a huge smile on his face and I rarely ever saw him without that smile, a joke, and a sense of mischievousness. Sam and I are devastated at his loss but we know he has stirred up Heaven with his vitality and is fishin' and rock in'. R.I.P. Joe. Sam and I will miss you! Sam and Cheryl Schmitt

“ My deepest condolences to all of Joe's family and friends. He's probably one of the funniest people I've ever met. I always thought Susan was so lucky to have him as an uncle, so much so that I had wanted to fix him up with one of my aunts. Would have been nice to have been related to my best friend. Even though that didn't end up being in the cards for us, I'll always think of him fondly as "Uncle Joe" and remember him with a smile. Susan, you and all of your family are in my prayers.

“ Joe was a part of my class of 1973 MD friend group. We watched the Watergate trials all summer along w some others as we waited to turn 18 and get real jobs after graduation. Joe and I were the last two. We would call each other during the trial breaks and discuss who we thought was lying or telling the truth. Such a good guy and a good friend. So sorry to hear of his passing. Sympathies to Joe's family and friends.
