“ Joe was always a pleasure to see at work, I've missed him since he retired but I always knew that I would run into him at the Fall Festival. My thoughts are with you at this time.##imported-begin##Lynn Griffin##imported-end##

“ I only knew Joe from the Nut Club meetings and of course the Fall Festival.

He was a great member and a great person and he always seemed to be around when you needed him.

I am very sorry for your loss.

He will be missed by all.

My wife and I are in Chi. and will miss the service.
