“Joyce💕 I consider Joyce my dearest friend.....our husbands jobs put us both in Valdosta at the same time and for 10 years we were the best buddies.I feel like I know all you kids....She loved u all and she shared her life with me so I feel like I know you all and your kids too. How I wish I could be there today to celebrate her life. I moved to Oregon and we continued to keep in touch, in fact Joyce came out to visit us twice since we came out here. We'd talk on the phone and keep up with each other all these years. Last time her birthday in April. Joyce was a special special person and I so miss her already cuz I can't pick up that phone and hear her say “Hi Carole what ya doing?”

Hold all those memories of her close....she is always right there with you. Loving you like always. Only now she is with her Gil and I can just picture their smiling faces! Rest In Peace dearest friend! ❤️

“ Kim, Elissa, Brian, Matt and families--I'm so sorry to hear of Joyce's passing. It had been a while since I had talked with her, but feel blessed to have known her and your dad, Gil, as well, over the years. I know she had really missed him. I'm sure they were both proud of all of you and your families. God bless you all as you go through this time.
