I was so surprised to learn Judy has gone home to Heaven. I have such fun memories of our days together as kids. I used to ride my bicycle to her house and stay all night. She would roll over to my side till I had to get up and go around to the other side of the bed. I saw her last at drive-in church at Crosspoint Trinity recently. My prayers and thoughts are with Jim, Sandy & Donna and the family. Good memories. Judy has won the battle and for her I'm rejoicing. She will be greatly missed.

“ My deepest condolences to your family upon hearing of Judy's passing. Both Roger and I worked with Judy for quite a number of years as an ombudsman in Area 6, Muncie and surrounding counties, with Roger working in the Columbus, IN, Area 11 and 12.

Judy was a strong advocate and a determined ombudsman who always wanted to help the residents she served, I know she will be greatly missed and was loved by all who knew her.

Many prayers for comfort and peace during this difficult time.
