“ Our sympathy and condolences go to Judy's family and friends who can take comfort in knowing that she is now with God. In the words of poet Mary Frye:

*Do not stand at my grave and weep
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.*

Love and peace,

“ We were very sadden to hear of Judy's death. We were not aware that she had gotten that bad. She had always stopped in periodically and gave us updates. Your mom was a truely special woman, who had great love for her cats. She will be missed by all of us. Unfortunately with our work schedule none us will be able to make it for visitations. You have our deepest sympathy. We hope Oliver does well in his new home. He will be due for his vaccinations in December. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you. We are sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Judy and the staff at St. Joe Vet Clinic##imported-end##
