“ Dear Linda and the entire Bittner Family:

Thank you for letting me know of your Mom's death and for sharing this beautiful video tribute with me. I found your email late this evening during a quiet moment (very unusual for this household) and I had the opportunity to watch and quietly reflect on your Mom's life captured partially in the video tribute. It was a reverence to her life and her generous spirit. Her joy with her children, grandchildren and great children was evident. And her love for your Dad, Earl, came shining through! You have my prayers and support as I know that no matter the strength of our faith or the loving support of family and friends, the passing of one's Mother, no matter the age or circumstance, is always one of life's most poignant events. May many wonderful memories, the love of family and friends, and your own strong faith help to ease the pain of this loss. THANK YOU so very much for sharing this with me. Though I never had the gift of meeting Juliann Bittner in person, I came to know the strength of her character and loveliness of her spirit through these precious photos. Please know that you have my prayerful support now and in the months ahead.
