

Karen Williams

June 17, 1958 - July 25, 2011

Karen R. (Wilhite) Williams, 53, of Evansville, passed away Monday, July 25, 2011 at her home.

Karen's main passion in life was her husband, Kelly, and her children, Jeremy and Danielle. They have been a strong family of love and care.

She has been a source of strength and a light to many friends and people as she battled her disease with determination, grace and peace. Her message to those who knew her was the peace she felt with God and that she was embraced in his love and felt no fear.

Karen was an account manager for 15 years for South Central Media. She was a graduate of the University of Evansville with a degree in Marketing.

She was involved with "Water for People" for several years to raise funds to supply clean water for countries in need. She looked forward to their annual vacation to the ocean and playing pool volleyball with family and friends.

Karen is survived by her husband of 20 years, Kelly Williams, her daughter, Danielle Williams of Evansville and her son, Jeremy Jones of Lexington, KY. Also surviving are her parents, Alverna (Dunn) Wilhite and Jerry Wilhite and two sisters, Kathy (Frank) Jackson of Dallas Fort Worth, TX and Jill (Johnny)

Kincaide of Evansville.

Funeral services will begin at 10:00 A.M. Thursday, July 28, 2011 at Salem United Methodist Church, 6311 Kratzville Road, Evansville, IN, Rev. Randy Anderson officiating. Burial will follow in St. Joseph Cemetery.

Friends may visit with the family from 4:00 until 8:00 P.M. Wednesday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street, Evansville, IN 47712.

“ Kelly, I am so sorry to read about Karen's death. My thoughts and prayers are with you, Danielle and the rest of your family. When someone passes as such a young age it is especially hard to accept. I have always thought a lot of your family and I know you must have many wonderful memories to carry with you. My heart goes out to you, Pam###imported-begin###Pam Buschkill###imported-end###
