“ I have not been a good nephew to either Aunt Kathleen, or, Uncle Donald. For that matter, not a good cousin to those that were their children.

However, and after reviewing the pictures herein, I am compelled to write.

Having lived in Colorado now for over 67 years, I never enjoyed visiting Indiana. Once we arrived, however, things changed much for the better.

When alive, I had access to Grandpa and Grandma Marrs, Uncle Donald, Aunt Kathleen, Uncle Jimmy, Aunt Dorothy, and a myriad of cousins.

Regardless of who was present at our visit, Uncle Donald and Aunt Kathleen were; - managing · running · administering · directing · supervising · overseeing · controlling · commanding · leading · heading up · looking after · taking care of - all of our needs, and then some.

Then as time passed, and returning neared, I felt sad. Sad, because I was leaving one of the best times of my life, and the best people knowing that I wished we lived closer.

I'm sorry.

Asking now for a hug, when I see you both again.

“ My Aunt Kathleen was always the sweetest Aunt. I lived out of the country for 27 years but when I was able to visit she and I took a special drive to visit Lisa's grave and we talked alot about God. She was so kind when I had to ask for help she loaned me money for 3 months and thank God I paid it back to her. A big heart with much love. Both Don and Kathleen would call me every other week to check up on me when my Mother passed. It was so wonderful to hear their jokes and our funny memories. Cherry bombs at Meskers park at a family picnic. Fishing in the Rocky Mountains. Making home made ice cream at my mom and dad's house. Sure will miss her just wish I would have lived closer.

“ My prayers for all the family. I lived in the neighborhood on Virginia St. Kathleen and I were classmates and friends throughout grade school and high school. Lots of wonderful memories especially playing tennis and starting our first job at the same time. I entered the Monastery in Ferdinand after my junior year and we lost contact. Looking at the Memories let me view Kathleen's life and relationships. What a beautiful family.
