

Kathryn Duncan

November 7, 1918 - August 18, 2010

Kathryn (Kasbohm) Duncan, age 91, of Evansville died August 18, 2010 at the Heritage Center on Evansville. Kathryn was born November 7, 1918 to Herman and Lydia (Wingerter) Kasbohm. She was the last of seven children to survive.

Kathryn was preceded in death by her parents, her husband of 33 years, Clarence E. Duncan, three brothers, three sisters, a grandson and a grand daughter-in-law.

Kathryn graduated from Columbia Grade School in 1932 and attended Central High School until she left to work at Republic Aviation during the war. She was a self-taught seamstress, making clothes from a very early age. She made custom drapes for A.G. Duncan and Son Furniture Company until the early 1950's. She and her husband Clarence were owners of the 772 Tavern, Duncan's Inn and in 1965 started C. Duncan and Son Collection Agency from which she retired in 1995. She was a life-long member of Central United Methodist Church, where she made many friends over the years.

She is survived by her daughter Linda S. (Jack) Wambach; son, George "Pat" (Janet) Duncan, both of Evansville; five grandchildren, Lisa (Bill) Pendleton, Todd (Connie) Wambach, Shannon (Gwen) Wambach, C. Jeff (Amy) Duncan and Douglas (Krystal) Duncan; seven great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will begin at 10:00 A.M. Monday at Pierre Funeral Home, Rev. Joseph Easley officiating. Burial will follow in Memorial Park Cemetery.

Friends may visit from 2:00 until 6:00 P.M. on Sunday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street.

The family wishes to thank the staff at the Heritage Center, Dr. Evelyn Bose and Heritage Hospice for the love and kindness they extended to Kathryn and her family while she was a resident at the Heritage Center.

Memorial contributions may be made to Central United Methodist Church, 300 Mary Street, Evansville, IN 47710.
