“ My heart is so heavy... It is difficult to find words to express the loss of such an innocent child... I cannot think of one time that I saw little Kendall without a smile on her face! She brought sunshine into the lives of many! SAC has countless happy memories of Kendall & misses her. I pray that you can find peace in knowing that her warmth and glow was a result of the love she received at home. You will be with her again. Until then, she will watch over you from heaven. Your family will be in our thoughts and our prayers.##imported-begin##Sondra, Shane, SAC & Shelby Chancellor##imported-end##

“ Brian and Diane,

I can't begin to tell you how heartsick this news has made me. Though we haven't seen each other in much for many years, Brian, the sudden tragedies you've had to endure in the past 6 years and how they have affected me, has reminded me of a bond I still have with you from our childhood running in the woods and eating peanut butter and syrup. I know the pain I feel is trivial compared to what you're enduring, but it is real pain and I share it with you.

Though I can't be there, know that my thoughts and the thoughts of so many others are with you during this terrible time...and I will hug my daughter extra tight.##imported-begin##Mike Breidenbach##imported-end##

“ I have known you all for so long that you seem like family to me. I remember the day we found out you were having Kendall. Dalton wore a shirt on grandparents day you had made that said "I'm going to be a big brother". We laughed so hard that day because the grandparents didn't notice what was on the shirt until we had to point it out to them. From the moment, I met Kendall I fell in love with her. She grew into a beautiful angel! I will miss her always!##imported-begin##April Moore##imported-end##
