“ Kevin was a most precious loving nephew an Aunt could desire. Throughout his adulthood I could expect random calls from Kevin to see how I was doing, did I need anything, or could he do anything to help me. Rarely did we miss an opportunity to express our views on current affairs. Fortunately, in most instances we shared agreeable views. Rarely did Kevin pass an occasion to boast about his happy marriage and his love for Becky. Truly Becky was a treasured God given gift to Kevin. Needless to say my bountiful store of precious and loving memories of Kevin will live on in my heart. However, will be tremendously missed.

“ Kevin with me when I harvested my first deer about 1974 and Kevin fishing on the Tippicanoe River near Lafayette, IN on a weekend trip he and I took to visit Joe, about 1975. Kevin started hunting with Joe, John and me when he was in elementary school and continued until Joe left for Purdue. Then he and I hunted and fished together until college pulled me away. The good times of our youth.
