“ I so regret not being with your family. I felt tears falling yesterday as I thought of Kevin, his radiant smile and unconditional love given to everyone.

Malea and I were driving in Montana when I received word. I felt numb because he died far too young.

Though each of you knew his death was coming & went through the long and gradual loss of him these past years, I hope you'll hold tight to all the joyful moments, the laughter you often shared, dinners around kitchen tables, long morning walks, drives around the country side & especially the conversations you shared with him one on one.

No one will ever forget his rendition of “Henry & Nettie” around the fire at our Friday cousin party years ago! His smile was contagious & warmed my heart last year as he greeted me by name at our recent family gathering. I think of his mom now, (my beloved Aunt Nettie) now holding him in her arms.

I think of his daughters holding newborns in their arms and the raw pain they must feel without a grandfather for their children. I think of his children & especially Angie..I'm sorry this is so hard.

Kevin was a gift, one who can remind us to love everyone unconditionally; accept people without judgement...and most importantly greet people with an open heart & a big smile!

“ I was fortunate to play baseball growing up with Kevin at St. Phillips. He played county league with my brother also. We would all go over and eat ice cream at Weinzapfels after practice. When I would see him he always had that big smile on his face. You will always be missed Kevin. Prayers to his family.

“ Kevin and my brother were rivals in wrestling but great friends off the mat. He called me Johnny's little sister no matter how old I was and always teased me like his little sister. My deepest sympathies to his amazing wife Angie, his kids and their spouses, his grandchildren, all of his siblings, family and close friends. We lost a great one! He will always be remembered in our family as Sylvia's favorite. Love and prayers.
