“ Steve, Karen and family, I was so sorry to hear about Uncle Killian passing away. Even though we are hundreds of miles apart, I still think of you all and wish we had lived closer and could have visited more. You are all in my prayers, your Texas cousin Barbara##imported-begin##Barbara Williams##imported-end##

“ *Steve, Karen and Families, We are sorry to hear about Uncle Killian. He has always been one of our favorite Uncles. I'm sure your Mom was happy to greet him in heaven. They were always so happy together. Sorry we can't make his Funeral but we will be thinking of you. Instead of flowers, we will make a contribution to Resurrection Church as you requested. We loved see the video of him. Take care and God Bless. Love, Patty, Jerldine, Bill and Family. ps. I also left this message on the Evansville Courier Press Website. “ I wish to extend my sympathy and prayers to Killian's family. He was a special friend to my dad, Albert Schmitt while they were at the Heritage Center. He enjoyed music with my dad a lot. Now they can share their German greetings as well.
