I met and knew of Kim as Kevin's older sister...Kevin and I were dating at Harrison 1978... we were so happy , Kim drove us to a restaurant in Mount Vernon for my 16th birthday... I just recently learned of Kim's passing and I am so saddened especially after Kevin passed in 2013 which broke my heart...I will carry fond memories of the Knapp family... Thank you Kerrye for letting me share Kevin's Artwork with you in 2013. My deepest sympathy for your losses of two precious lives...my love for your brother carries me through the tough times. I visit his grave often.

“ I've known Kim and Kerrye since I was in first grade and there is just no other way to describe her than a positive upbeat wonderful sister and friend. Even when we were young and she was yelling at their brother Kevin to get up to Great Scot to get their donuts – she always had that Kim smile on her face. She will be greatly missed but we'll always remember the inspiration of her 'treat others as you want to be treated' attitude.
