“ No matter the circumstances, losing one of your children must be the greatest loss of all. My deepest sympathy to you. Focus on the good things in her life that you described so beautifully in her obituary. She touched the lives of many in her work as you have done, Tim, in your teaching. Sincerely,

“ I met Kirsten twice and she quickly reminded me why I connect so well with Bryce and why we became close friends. Like everyone in the Mitchell family, Kirsten was a caring person that welcomed you to be a part of the Mitchell family. Bryce will always be a part of my family and I hope that makes Kirsten a sister I never had. I am so sorry I cannot be there to support you in person Bryce. The Mitchell family has my deepest condolences.##imported-begin##Anthony Ioannacci##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss.
I've been through this a lot lately, so I do know some of what you are going through. here is something that helped me.
Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond's gift of snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the autumn's gentle rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush.
Of quiet birds in circled flight,
Do not stand at my grave and cry.
I am not there. I did not die.##imported-begin##Donna Smitha/
