“ Kyle was never in one of my classes, but I knew who he was anyway -- his grin as he got away (or not) with yet another harmless bit of mischief helped him stand out. I don't think he ever passed me in the hallway without sharing that smile and a happy greeting. I wish you many many happy memories that will one day help soften the pain.##imported-begin##Donna Richardson##imported-end##

“ Kyle was an amazing boy. He loved everyone and everyone loved him. It is hard to figure out why God took him away from us, but everything happens for a reason. I know that Kyle will be watching over all of us each and every day. He will never be forgotten. I am sorry for your loss. You have my sympathy and my prayers.##imported-begin##Hadley Lannert##imported-end##

“ We only knew Kyle for a short time, but over the years watching him on the gridiron, he played with such spirit and enthusiasm like their was no tomorrow.
Kris, James, and Sullivan family and Joe, Rhonda Weis family.
It's difficult at such a time to find words that say the things that one can only hope will comfort you today, but may it help a bit to know that there are near at hand those who keep you close in though, those who understand. “ Dear Kris & James Sullivan and Joe & Rhonda Weis,
I am writing this letter to give my condolences of the passing of your son, Kyle Weis. I give my deepest sympathy to you and your family for a young man who had a bright future ahead of him. I have been touched by the heart-felt words written by Kyle's friends. They describe a young man any parent would be proud of; the fruit does not fall far from the tree. I can't imagine the loss of a child, and only pray that your faith in God will carry you through this difficult time. John Barrientes is my cousin. I am truly sorry for his behavior which resulted in the death of your son, and for the anguish your family is now experiencing. My prayers have been for your family's grieving, pain, anger, and healing. These feelings are all understandable and justified. My prayers have also been for my cousin, and everything he must come to terms with now because of this tragic incident he caused. I pray most importantly that we let the Holy Spirit do His work in all of us, and that we learn what God intends us to through this trial in our lives.

With Christ's Love,

“ Dear family,
Words cannot lessen the grief you must be feeling. When my husband asked if I knew a Kyle Weis, that wonderful smile of Kyle's flashed before me. He could melt a principal's heart with it. Our sympathy to all of you that have touched our lives before we moved away. Prayer and God's peace to you.

“ Joe, Vernetta, Paul, David & families;
Please accept my deepest sympathy and condolences on the loss of a very loved and wonderful young man. Joe & Paul, you may not remember me as an earlier sitter; I remember both of you and your wonderful parents as I grew up. Please know that I will pray for peace, comfort and acceptance for all of you in the face of this tragedy.

My thoughts are with your families.
