So grateful that Mom, Dad, and I could watch this from here in Logansport! My prayers are with all of you today. We are sorry we could not be with you today but loved seeing all the photos and memories. I especially loved the ones with her kayaking. I am especially grateful for her prayer group, Bible Study group and pastors who have led her to deep faith in Christ. If we, like LaDonna, truly believe in Jesus as Savior and submit our lives to him as LORD we know we will see her again in the Father's House. We can lay her to rest in the sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life. This is not goodbye forever but instead fair well. I'm praying that even this time of pain will be used by God for good. Perhaps her service today will lead someone to put faith in Christ. Blessings and peace, Beth Ann

“ I worked with Ladonna for a short period of time at EVSC and absolutely loved her. She was kind, fun to be around, pretty, and just a wonderful blessing to have briefly come into my life. God bless you all and give you peace during this difficult time. I will never forget her.💛
