“ I remember me and my sister staying with Aunt Julie and Uncle Lanny and them fixing my sister a plate of spaghetti and it slid off her plate ,me not knowing this came behind her and went sliding right through the spaghetti straight into the bathroom .what a mess! They couldn't quit laughing and Uncle Lanny never let me live that one down. One thing about it he was always a jokester and could always make you laugh.I have always considered them as my second Mom & Dad .I will always remember,never forget

“ I've known Lyndee since kindergarten. Growing up, we stayed at each other's houses. We grew up together, and when I was at Lyndee's house, Lanny always treated me like a daughter. I have a lot of memories I could share, but my favorite one is when we all went bowling and he bought me and Lyndee little disco purses. We thought we were so cute with those little purses. He was a great dad that much I know and remember. Heaven gained another angel.
