

Larry Coleman

March 9, 1941 - January 31, 2013

Larry G. Coleman, age 71, of Evansville, passed away Thursday, January 31, 2013 at home with his family by his side.

He was an Evansville All-Star football player from F.J. Reitz High School in 1958. He then went on to play football at Indiana University from 1960 to 1962. After graduating from college he became the second Evansville football player to sign a professional contract with the Chicago Bears.

He was a sports fanatic and enjoyed spending his mornings at Twin Towers with his co-members. He also enjoyed spending time with his friends at Jimtown Bar watching sporting events. Larry loved to play golf.

He was preceded in death by Donald Coleman, Charles Coleman, Bill Coleman, Ramona Zapata, Betty Coleman and Bonnie Heimbuecher.

Surviving are his wife of 21 years, Jo Ann Coleman; sisters, Tonya (Wayne) Broderhausen and Jennifer (Marvin) Sosa; brother, Paul (Cheryl) Coleman; son, Michael; stepchildren, Julie Littlepage, Kim Kinchel, and David Mabrey, who took care of him at home; grandchildren, Jeremy Kinchel, Josh Kuhr, and his favorite Linsi Kinchel, who he raised as his own.

The family would like to express their sincere thanks to Deaconess Hospice, especially Melissa.

Larry wished to be remembered as everyone knew him, and therefore asked to not be given any showing or funeral services. Pierre Funeral Home is handling arrangements.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Vanderburgh County Humane Society, 400 Milner Industrial Drive, Evansville, IN 47710.

“ My thoughts are with JoAnn and family after the loss of my Uncle Larry.

I have fond memories of my Aunts Tonya and Jenny taking me up to the bowl to watch Larry play football. Also of my Aunt Bonnie and me driving up to Bloomington to pick Larry up in her volkswagon van. We all had some real good times back in the day.##imported-begin##Lori Coleman-Boenigk##imported-end##
