“ Larry, I never knew about your death or illness. I am so sorry. You were the coolest and will always be in my heart. My children loved you and so did I! O wish I had known to comfort you when you got so ill. You were an amazing person AND excellent present wrapper! You were out of the box like me and I am so glad I got to share some of this life with you. Love Always, Toni

“ To Mrs Long, Gary, Susie and Terri and families—

Our sincerest sympathy upon the passing of Larry.

Our family has so many happy memories of our Sundays and summer holidays spent with the Long family at the river camps !

May Larry be at peace with our Lord and Savior now and eternally.
