“ When Lee was eleven I was born. To everyone she was generous, kind, protective, caring and fun. She loved life to the fullest, especially her family and her home. She loved singing, dancing, roller skating, swimming and shopping--all of which she did well. She was protective of the underdog, of children and especially anyone whom she felt was mistreated yet she could be hurt with an unkind word. She was always thoughtful of others--she lit up a room with her beautiful smile. ...and what a perfectionist she was--about everything! She wrote lovely poetry of her friends and family. Once she met you, you were a friend forever--she had many friends who truly loved her. It wasn't until I returned from a trip to Ireland that I realized she had mistakenly been thought to have a speech problem as a child. No, it wasn't a speech impediment. She enunciated like the Irish.

It is with much sadness we bid her farewell and send her home to God, thanking him for sending her to us. She will lovingly remain forever in our hearts. My condolences to family and friends for I KNOW what they have lost! With love from Jean her sister.##imported-begin##Jean Hendricks##imported-end##

“ Don & Family,
We send our deepest sympathy. No words can touch what you and your family are feeling. No person can soften the loss. Still we are thinking about you and hoping it helps in some way to know that we share in your sadness.
