“ We were all like brothers years ago , Leonard and Kim's is where we all hung out ,for years it seemed like. But life takes you down different paths work, family's , etc. You kinda lose touch over the years, but you never lose the love of a real friend. Leonard you will be greatly missed. I'll never forget that warm smile you always had to greet a friend. The most important thing is that you accepted the Lord. We know where your at we'll meet you there someday love ya and miss ya

“ Leonard owned a Video store years ago on Broadway. I would rent Movies and return them really late and one Leonard was losing patience with it and said bring back the movies on time or he was going to collect late fees .When I missed the due date again by 2 weeks I was ready with an excuse that I had my Gall Bladder removed and been in the hospital he said yes right you owe me $46.00. I thought that was a little heartless.....I already used that excuse before and he remembered that forever....

“ When I remember Leonard -- or Lenny (we -- his cousins & I -- sometimes called him that when we were kids) -- the first thing I remember is his smile. And if he wasn't smiling, he had a twinkle in his eye that meant he was up to mischief and would be smiling as soon as we caught on to what he was doing.
