“ On this hot summer day, I am thinking of Linda. We went through our pregnancies together. She had Micheal one month before I had TJ. We took Lamaze classes together, took baby exercise classes together while the babies were in the womb. That picture was in the Evansville-Courier somewhere when we did that. I went with her for an ultrasound in October 1984. We saw Micheal sucking his thumb in the womb. I wouldn't have an ultrasound because I was a bit weird and worried about the waves hitting the baby in my womb. Thought you would enjoy the thoughts. Good memories!
