“ My name is Kalea Garrett. I am an EMT at American Medical Response here in Evansville. I had the most wonderful opportunity one day in late November while I was on shift, and that was to meet Lindy. Even with what he was going through, he was still one of the most positive people I had ever met. It was raining the day I met him. Instead of being sad because it was gloomy, he was so excited to feel the rain on his skin, and we let him do just that. He was so excited to see all of the beautiful trees as well. He kept saying “Look at that! Isn’t that tree beautiful?” He told me all about his wife Debbie and his daughters. I could tell he loved them so much. He told me about planning a surprise party for Debbie in December, and he was so excited. I hope so much that he got to do that. In the short hour or so that I got to spend with Lindy, he changed my outlook on life. He told me to appreciate what I have and to live life to the fullest, and I do just that. I think about his sweet soul everyday. I will never forget praying with him and playing music off his phone for him. He was dancing and singing and had the biggest smile on his face. I’m so very sorry for your loss to Lindy’s family, and Merry Christmas in Heaven, Lindy.
