

Lockie McWright Miller

April 6, 1910 - August 6, 2009

Lockie M. (Sutton) McWright Miller, 99, of Evansville, passed away on Thursday, August 6, 2009 at the Brentwood Golden Living Center.

For many years, Mrs. Miller operated the Lockie's Needle and Crafts Store on North Main Street, along with Quality Weaving and Sewing. As part of her sewing activities, Mrs. Miller repaired the baseball uniforms for the Evansville Triplets in the 1970's.

Mrs. Miller is survived by three grandchildren, Glen McWright, Marta Howerton and Michael McWright. Also surviving are four great grandchildren, Lara and Ellen Howerton and Megan and Peter McWright.

Lockie was preceded in death by her first husband, Robert McWright in 1951, her second husband, Walter Miller in 1995 and her son, Cornelius Glen McWright in 2006.

Graveside services will be held at 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday, August 25, 2009 at Sunset Memorial Park Cemetery, Rev. Richard Godbold officiating.

Pierre Funeral Home is handling the arrangements.
