“ *Mary, John, Don, Roger, Ronnie and the rest of the Miller men....I read with great sadness on the death of your mother. Your mom and dad and all of you were so good to me when I was teaching at St. Agnes and having Sunday dinner at your house. I will always have a special place in my heart for all of you and will always strive to achieve the warmth and sense of humor your parents had. “ To our extended family, our deepest and loving thoughts are with you all during this time of sadness. We cherish Lois in our fond memories, remembering what a great lady she was to us. Always a gentle smile and a kind word to encourage us as we grew in life. As we move through life I seem to draw back to warm memories of what good times we had in our childhood together and your Mom was always there to laugh with us when learning of our great adventures. I will miss her greatly. Tommy###imported-begin##Tom and Lynn Heath###imported-end##

“ *I had the pleasure of knowing and being a part of her life. I will always remember deep in my heart her words of wisdom and her kind and loving heart. I will always remember what she said after I lost my mother, Alice, her traveling buddy She said I guess I will have to be your Mom now. I will never forget all the trips and great times the 4 of us had. So I just have a little favor to ask you, Lois Rae, say Hi to every one up there for me.... Love Everett Ray P.S.
