“ To the family of Lorene:

She was a fine lady and so was you father. She sure did miss him. I bet he was waiting for her "Just Beyond the moon" They came to the dances at the Owls when Jack and Sally Deig played music. She was an asset to the prayer group we had at Leisure Living. I'm sorry she moved from us, but I think she really wanted to be near her sister and Church. No matter how worried she was she always asked how was Jacks back. She would say "I'm praying for him, and you." May she rest in peace as she sees God face to face. May God bless the family.
