“ Grandma was a great lady that will be missed terribly. She was the best Grandma anyone could ask for. She always had time for us. She played whatever games we wanted to play whenever we wanted to play. But she is happily back with Grandpa.##imported-begin##Lori (Weinzapfel) Briles##imported-end##

“ While mourning the death of Aunt Loretta, we join with you in celebrating her goodness and the goodness of her life. She was a dear person, a wonderful aunt. I have so many good childhood memories of Aunt Loretta and your family, including Uncle Dick, Carol, Gary, Tim, Judy, and Susan. I am sorry we cannot join you in saying "goodbye" to your mother. We fondly remember Aunt Loretta and your family in our prayers.##imported-begin##Tom and Sarah Wannemuehler##imported-end##
