“ Aunt Butz’s death has flooded me with so many happy memories about her and our family. As a boy, I remember visiting her and Uncle Julius as they lived in their garage next to the construction site of their family’s future home on Koressel Road. I think Janie, Richard, and Susie were very little then, and Tom was yet to be born. We had so many great times at their home over the years. Aunt Butz was always so gracious and sweet as she cooked delicious meals and desserts for our family events—the birthday parties, snow sledding in the winter, and summer family reunions. She is the last to leave us from the Greatest Generation of the Paul-Schenk family aunts and uncles. Now we Baby Boomers are on the hilltop as we continue to instill our deceased loved ones’ values in our families at present and in the future. As we do so, we continue the presence of Aunt Butz, and all our loved ones, into eternity.
