

Lucille R. Richardville

March 22, 1933 - November 16, 2020

Lucille R. Richardville, age 87, of Haubstadt, IN passed away Monday, November 16, 2020 at the Parkview Care Center.

Lucille was born March 22, 1933 in Evansville to the late William J. and Magdalena C. (Sauer) Wolf. She had worked in the offices of Murphy Leather Company and Young's Grain Elevator and also helped with the family business, Ace Drilling Company. She was a longtime member of St. James Catholic Church, the St. James Altar Society and the Extension Homemakers of Hornville.

Surviving Lucille are her daughter, Becky Koester; two sons, Joseph (Leslie Boone) Richardville and Benjamin (Shannon Coe) Richardville; one sister, Mary Ann Baehl; brother, Ronald J. Wolf; a daughter-in-law, Karen Richardville; four grandchildren, Andy, Brent and Nathan Koester and Marina Kay Richardville and five great grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Lucille was preceded in death by her husband of 53 years, Curtis Alvin Richardville in 2005; by two sons, Curtis David Richardville in 1995 and Edmond William Richardville on August 30, 2020 and by a brother, Bill Wolf.

Due to the pandemic, the visitation and Mass of Christian Burial will be private at St. James Catholic Church. Burial will take place in the St. James Church Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be to the Alzheimer's Association.

The Richardville family would like to express their sincere appreciation to the staff of Parkview Care Center for the kind and compassionate care given to Lucille during her time there.

Condolences may be made online at www.pierrefuneralhome.com.

“ Always kind and caring. I will always remember the friendship shared with my mother. Many fun times over the holidays, oh my how hard you worked to host all of us. A very pretty lady inside and out. I feel sure mom has been waiting for this time to be with you again. If Ed can I know he will have a Mc Donald’s hamburger, fry, and milk shake for you.
