

Luna May Wambach

February 5, 1910 - June 26, 2010

Luna May (Hollerbach) Wambach, 100, of Evansville died June 26, 2010 at Heritage Center in Evansville. Born February 5, 1910 to Charles and Minnie Bertha (Minton) Hollerbach, she was the last of six children to survive.

Preceding Luna in death were her parents, her husband, Arnold H. Wambach (1893-1971), five siblings and a great grandson.

Luna was a life-long member of Central United Methodist Church. She enjoyed bingo and activities at Heritage Center where she lived since 2001. She crocheted and was an avid clabber player until her sight failed. She loved her grandkids and always made time for them.

Surviving are daughters, Margy Schmitt (Donald), Sharon Wehr, and son Jack Wambach (Linda) eleven grandchildren, Donald Schmitt II, (Mary Ann), Mark Schmitt ((Jean), Michael Schmitt (Rhonda), Michele Unfried (Mark), Peggy Wilderman (Tim) Randy Myers, Vicki Myers, Kelly Wehr, Lisa Pendleton (William), Todd Wambach (Connie), Shannon Wambach (Gwen) seventeen great grandchildren and eight great, great grandchildren. Also surviving are two nephews, Kenneth Curtin (Elke) of Noblesville, IN and Bob Curtin (Jan) of Norco, CA.

Funeral services will begin at 10:00 A.M. Wednesday, June 30, 2010 at Pierre

Funeral Home, Rev. Joseph Easley officiating. Burial will follow in Park Lawn Cemetery in Evansville.

Friends may visit with the family from 2:00 until 6:00 P.M. Tuesday at Pierre Funeral Home, 2601 W. Franklin Street.

The family would like to thank Heritage Center and Heritage Hospice for the love and kindness they extended to Luna.

“ *Thank you, Aunt Luna, for everything. I'll never forget your help with the babies after Kristin was born. You handled her colic with such grace. Also - how could we ever forget all of those loud card games where you were sure dad was cheating! You were an important part of our childhood and will live on in our hearts.###imported-
