“ Prayers to the family from John Goebel and kids. What a good friend he always was to our dad. We have so many fond memories with you all. When my dad called he said, "My buddy Max is gone, probably one of my oldest and best friends", then was silent. I'm sure there are many heavy hearts. Godspeed Malcolm.

Sincerely,

Bobbi Pierson, my dad, (John Goebel) and Family

“ Spent many a evening playing games and cards with Malcolm and Mary back in the 60s and 70s. Whike our kids fell asleep on the floor. Many good memories. Remember back in high school we called him "oranges " because he ate so many of them during wrestling season to keep his weight down. My sympathies to Keith, Anna, Toby and Todd.

“ My earliest memories of Malcolm were when we walked to St Philip Church for Mass, and he would tell me stories of sports, from books he read or else he made them up - I am not sure. But I remember listening with much interest, He must have been about 11 and I was 5 or 6. Our free time was spent playing ball of some kind and he was very patient with me. His love for sports flowed over into my love of sports. I remember his Mater Dei football games and wrestling matches as favorite events of childhood. I was so proud of him. I still am proud of him - the God-fearing man he became and the wonderful family he and Mary raised. May God give him eternal comfort in heaven and may God give peace to his family during this difficult time.
