SO

My deepest sympathy goes out to the family of Marilyn Miller. I was your neighbor and a classmate of Marilyn. I lived on Franklin St. about 5 doors up the hill. I have fond memories of Marilyn as I not only lived and went to school with her but touched in with her a time or two after we graduated from high school. She also visited me here at the monastery here in Ferdinand. She was a great person and accomplished much in her lifetime. She and you are in my prayers. Feel free to come and visit at the monastery.
