“ I met Mark many years ago, just after my sister started dating his brother. He worked at Jerry's then and their parking lot is where my mom's car was seemingly hijacked once with me in it, or so I thought. As Mark jumped in the driver seat, I started screaming, falling out of the car sideways as I heard him yelling over and over, "Missi, it's me, Mark." It took a minute for it to register that he thought I was Missi and that I wasn't about to be murdered by the "Jerry's parking lot killer". Many years have passed since then and I can attest that Mark was the opposite of my first impression. He was a hardworking guy that loved his wife and family above all else. He was taken too soon. I am so sorry for all of his family, friends, coworkers that will miss him, especially his wife Lisa. My condolences and prayers go out to you.

Sincerely,
Bobbi Pierson
