“ Dennis and Family,

I was saddened to hear about Marsha's passing. She was so welcoming each time I returned home to St. Mark's and very attentive to my Mother, Dorothy Orth. Marsha is an example of someone who lived her faith and shared her time and talents with others. May your fond memories of her remain with you always.

“ Dennis: With deepest condolences. Meeting you and Marsha during my short ('71-'76) tenure in Evansville happened to be one of the highlights while living there. Hope you remember me from the Civic Center social services; Dorothy Sells was my supervisor. May Marsha rest in Eternal Peace, such a nice person. ...Benjamin Willett (Gulfport, MS).
