“ I enjoyed getting to know Martha through my dad, Jim Lambert. The first time I met her she got a to-go meal from Applebee's and offered to share it with me. She and Dad were going to Kentucky to an antique store and my daughter, Mia, and I went along. My impression of her was that she was very generous and fun! I got to know her better over the ensuing years, and I really enjoyed her friendship. She was a jewel and will be remembered fondly and missed. Condolences to all of you, especially Carol and Teresa, who I knew in high school, and Mary who I met more recently through your mother.
