“ Dear Bob and family of Ann,
Sorry we are unable to attend the funeral. I'm glad to have known Ann, she was a loving and caring lady of Christ. I am honored to have had her as my Godmother. The Bible that Ann and Bob given me on my first communion is still with me and read most everyday. I have taken it to every country I went to and each time I open I was reminded of the loving couple who gave it to me. Thanks for the prayers you have prayed and the good example you have shown how to live and love. I shall keep Bob and Family in my prayers.
Love always,

“ Aunt Ann was such a special lady. I loved to listen to her stories and talk to her about our dogs when we would visit. She always thought of us even though we are many miles away. I always looked forward to her Christmas card. She would write in detail about what was going on in her life. She will be greatly missed.
