“ *Just found out in 2016. I looked for him to wish him a happy Birthday, since he had one this past year (leap year). Found him on facebook. Try to contact him and Mark. When I went to my mothers in Henderson, Ky. I was speaking of not being able to contact him through facebook. So I looked him up with google and his obituary came up. Its hard to think that he's not just going to show up on our door step, unexpectedly. I love him dearly. I always will. Terry Joe passed this year (Dec. 19th, 2016). Mark, I'm so sorry that he is gone from this world. I hope someway this reaches you and your family. My exceedingly great sorrow reaches out to you all in love. “ I went to grade school with Marty at St. Agnes, when the family lived on Stinson. He was also funny and just a cut up. Will miss him.

“ One of my favorite memories of Marty was one time when he was having a cookout/party at his house. I wasn't there so he called me and told me I HAD to come and besides he had promised everyone entertainment for the night. I told him it sounded like fun and I was sure they would all have a good time but I was going to miss this one. He finally took a firm tone with me and said.... Lisa, I don't think you understand..you HAVE to come to the party because YOU ARE the entertainment! Well, with an invitation like that...who could refuse? It was a great time as usual with Marty around.

“ My favorite memory with marty was at the 4th of july party in 2010. That was the first time me and Jerry made yall cucumber dip and the first time I ate frog legs. All the rest of the memories were never short of smiles and cornhole. We love you and are here if you need us.

P.S. marty woke us up during the camp out by making our wake up alarm... a single shot from his shotgun. He will be missed and held close forever in our hearts.
