“ I only met Mr. Hicks the past week when he was in the hospital. He made me smile the first time I met him when he ask to see my teeth before I could draw his blood. The short time I was with him the two times I came in his room he always had a smile on his face. He had a great sense of humor and even though he felt so bad he made me smile. I wish I could have known him better. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Margo Miller##imported-end##
