“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you. We all share fond memories growing up and older with Aunt Mary Ann. Mary Ann was blessed to be surrounded by family and good friends throughout life. Mary Ann was a focal point throughout for bringing family and friends together sharing good conversation, a good laugh, snacks/meals, and practical advice. Almost without fail whenever I/we are around Mary Ann, she is surrounded by extended family or taking care of a grandparent or grandchildren. Always glad to have more visitors, welcome you in, to pull up a chair, and catch up. Mary Ann had a great life and is now in heaven with Uncle Leo, Grandma and Grandpa Bittner, my sister Annette, and many, many more of our Aunts, Uncles, and extended family.

Nick and Alicia Bittner

We miss you “Slats”

“ To all of the Family and Friends,
I can't even begin to tell of all the good times we had with Slats and Leo. There are way too many She was a beautiful sweet lady and always was good to me. She treated me with the utmost of love and respect. If she had a fault it was that she was too caring. Always wanting to know what she could do for you. May you rest in peace with your beloved Leo and we shall never forget all of the fun we had together. Hugs love and prayers to all.
