“ Linda and family, We are so sorry. When your mom was still in Evansville, we ran into her occasionally at the store or church and were always happy to see her and reminisce. My favorite memory of her was when Mrs. Jochim was our Brownie and Girl Scout leader. She always made sure I had a chance to give my opinion at a time when I was very timid. And I remember when I came to your house for a sleep over, she was always fun and cheerful. We will pray that you will soon be able to remember all the good times.
