In addition to her parents, Mary was preceded in death by her husband of 68 years, Harry G. McCullough in 2015 and by brothers, Peter Naas and Paul Naas.

Surviving Mary are children, Pete (Vera) McCullough, Tom (Pam) McCullough, Geralyn (Kent) Ruminer, Bill (Tammy) McCullough, John (Tina) McCullough and Julie (Glenn) Conley; nineteen grandchildren and five great

“ What a gift the life of Mary was to everyone who encountered her. She was funny, sweet, talkative, generous, beautiful and such a joy to be around. She raised a wonderful family who carried for her and her sweet Harry at the end of their journey. I have been blessed by knowing both Mary and Harry. It brings a smile to my face when I think about them, together again, in heaven with their Savior. A special prayer for all the McCullough family as they journey on without their dear, sweet Mother.

“ To my Aunt Mary who I will dearly miss. She was like a 2nd mom to me and was my Mom's best friend. Many times when I was a kid she and Uncle Harry would include me in many family outings, swimming, horse back riding, trips to the ranch in southern Illinois, and family gatherings. What great memories I will always have of both Aunt Mary and Uncle Harry. She will be greatly missed.
