

Mary Williams

October 27, 1920 - January 22, 2009

Mary M. Williams, 88, of Evansville, passed away Thursday, January 22, 2009 at Deaconess Hospital. Mary was born on November 27, 1920 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

She was an active member of Howell United Methodist Church. She taught school for many years mostly in Lapel, Indiana. A pastime she truly enjoyed was volunteering for the Community of Churches.

Mary was fondly called "Mare-Mare" by her great nephew.

She is survived by her caregivers, her niece and her husband, Delcie and Clyde Winiger and her nephew, Dave "Hap" Williams, all of Evansville. She is also survived by seven additional nieces and four nephews and numerous great nieces and nephews.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, Ida and Luther Williams, sisters, Louvada Glidden and Bessie McAllister, a brother, W. L. "Blue" Williams and a nephew, Luther Dennis Williams.

A memorial service will begin at 4:00 P.M. Tuesday, January 27, 2009 at Howell United Methodist Church, Rev. Ora Johnson officiating.

Friends may visit with the family from 2:00 P.M. until service time Tuesday at Howell United Methodist Church, 1408 Stinson Avenue, Evansville, IN.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to Howell United Methodist Church, 1408 Stinson Avenue, Evansville, IN 47712.
