“ - These are absolutely stunning, Alisia! You did a fantastic job capturing so many of the intimate details from their special day. I am especially in love with the shot of the newlyweds with all the beautiful bokeh from the lights in the background.##imported-begin##Pushpa##imported-end##

“ Dear Family of Mary Frances: I worked with Mary Frances at the Post Office. I hired on as a sub in May of 1979. She was already a very "seasoned" carrier by that time. Her helpfulness and kindness was most appreciated by me and many other new hires. I went full time in September of 1983, that was the year she retired. But she kept in touch with all of us rural carriers, coming to our picnics and Christmas get togethers. She and I kept in touch the last five or six years with Christmas cards, always writing a note in them that we should meet for lunch, but we never did. I have missed receiving a Christmas card from her the last couple of years and suspected that she was unable to correspond. Please give my sympathy to all of your family and know that she will be missed by others also. She was a kind and gentle spirit and God knows we need more of her kind on this earth. Sincerely and with Sympathy, Mary May##imported-begin##Mary May##imported-end##

“ Mary Frances was such a wonderful person. She took time with me to describe her childhood and how the Powell farm and family was growing up in Richland, IN. She was full of good humor and great memories. I am sorry for her passing, my prayers are with and for her family. For she was the last of the Powell's in Robert Lee Powell's (my grandfather) generation. Mary will be sorely missed.##imported-begin##Gabriel Sean Powell##imported-end##

“ Loved this lady like my mom. Always had a sweet smile and a twinkle in her eye. I would tell her "I Love You" and she would always say "I Just Love You" and I know it was true and came from a heart that has a lot of love to give. Will miss her sitting in choir and singing along with us. She loved music and singing now in Heaven with our Lord. Love you and see you some day! “ I am Charlie and Nellie Mitchell's youngest daughter. I've been at Grace Baptist since 1954. My dad just passed away in January at age 91. (Mamma preceeded him several years ago.) I really feel your pain. So hard. You all are on my heart and in my prayers. The thing that has helped me most these past months is to have lots of photos displayed ... lots of smiles! Reminding me of happy times, lots of love, and so many memories! I encourage you to do this also! It really helps! And enjoy talking with one another about those good ol' days and happy times together! God bless you! Shirley Ann##imported-begin##Shirley Mitchell Huntsman##imported-end##
