“ *Mr. Koenig, Gary, Susan, Dianne and Kevin,
I just learned that Mrs. Koenig passed away. I am so sorry. I remember how very sad I was when my mother died and I can only imagine how hard it is to lose a spouse of so many years.
I remember what a very kind and gentle person Mrs. Koenig was.
She was truly one of those people who made the world a better place for everyone who knew her.
I am really glad I got the chance to visit her when I was in Evansville in the summer of 2006. Even after her stroke she still had such a kind and gentle spirit.
I know you will all miss her deeply. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you and I will send a donation to Sacred Heart in her memory.
My brother Mike also sends his sympathy. He only recently learned that she died and he is the one who told me.
With deepest sympathy,

“ Dear Uncle Andy and family,

I am saddened to hear about our loss of Aunt Mary Jane, whom I remember for her patience and other-mother guidance, and her lifelong friendship that seems to transcend sisterhood with my own mother. I am this week in New Delhi, India, and thus unable to be there in person. My prayers and thoughts will, however, be in attendance.

Love,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow. We are sorry that the many miles between us will not permit our being present in person, but we will be with you in spirit through these days of adjustments.##imported-begin##Irene and Lynn Rainsberger##imported-end##

“ Susan,
My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I'd like to share a passage with you that was shared with me. "Your loved one touched many hearts and lives, and although it is hard to imagine the world without them, it is easy to imagine heaven rejoicing because they are there." May you find strength in knowing that your mom is at peace and with our Lord, Jesus Christ.##imported-begin##Jeanette##imported-end##
