“ My Uncle was a very giving person, always put God, family and friends ahead of himself. After my brother died in 1981, my Uncle and his wife, Aunt Bettie tended to his grave on all the special holidays as well as their own family graves as I was so very far away. Uncle Mead was my favorite Parker Uncle as well as his wife, my favorite Auntie Bettie. He never asked for anything yet he gave of himself whether volunteering for church needs or for anyone in need. When in WWII he took a photo of my mother and had a colored pencil drawing made of her - gave her this and it hung in the family home long after she died, then my father died - and now it hangs in my home. Rest with peace knowing you were loved by everyone! and now reunited with your beloved wife, Bettie. Always in our heart and memories. Thank you for loving my husband and making him feel as one of your own. Your family has and continues to be a great joy in our lives! Forever loving you, Niece and Nephew; Beth and Henry Medeiros
