“ Mike never took center stage. He was diligent and dutiful, but he never did it for applause. But he was ever present and ever helpful whenever and wherever needed. He lead with his heart and his soul ... with his whole being.

Mike was diligent in all things that mattered ... God, family, friends.

He was a great example of personal integrity and true servant leadership.

Kathy, their children, grandchildren and greatgrandchildren are now in the midst of great sorrow and loss. Tears are now the order of the day. Wonderful Mike leaves a major void which will not be quickly filled. But we also know that God will gently fill this void in His own time and in His own way.
