“ To Anna & family: I worked with Mike at Westpark for a couple years. he made me laugh almost every night. He and I shared a lot of the same views. The last time I heard, the Chemo was going well. Sorry I missed the funeral. My thoughts are with you.

Hey Mike, have one for me. That's what I told him the last we spoke. He said he would. I'll miss his humor and dry wit and sarcasm.

“ Michael was a great cna. I had the pleasure of being his nurse on midnight shift. He always helped me anyway he could and kept a smile on my face. He will be greatly missed. My heart is saddened . And sympathies and prayers sent to the family and for everyone. I know nursing will not be the same. Ive told this to michael quite a bit that i was only a good a nurse as the cnas i have working with me. Fly high michael.
