“ My friend Michelle, you are one of my most favorite people I have ever met in my life. I remember when we first met how quirky and honest to a fault I thought you were. You told me "I'm like a fungus, I'll grow on you" and boy did you ever. We had so much fun working at Parkdale together, and we stayed close even after I left. I remember when my Mom was really sick with cancer, and she didn't have long to live you showed up at my house out of nowhere worried about me. You truly cared and cried with me. I'll never forget that, and you'll never know how much that meant to me. I love you dear friend. Until we meet again. Love Jessica
