“ Mildred was the trombone player in the band at Mater Dei High School and Marilyn played the clarinet. The Schnur girls were quite a pair.

Millie was calm, kind and peaceful to all, which continued into Saint Marys Hospital School of Nursing. Competition between them was keen.

Peace to all the Schnur family members.

“ Mildred came into Willard Library when I worked nights. She was one of the dearest patrons I met. She would make me a Kugel and bring me her cross-stitchings which were beautiful. She will be missed. My condolences to the family.

“ Larry, Susan, Mike, and Cathy, please be assured of my prayers as you grieve the loss of your sweet mother.

I remember the time, years ago when she invited me to come pick some grapes and I cut my finger with the clippers. She of course took care of the cut and I knew I was in good hands.

It is ironic that as the Poor Claire Sisters leave their home your parents also go home to heaven. I know your parents were a big help to the sisters, especially your dad.

Eternal rest to both of them. Now we call on them to watch over us.

“ These are the only two pictures I have of Aunt Millie. They are from a reunion in Red Brush in 1989. I still occasionally make the ramen noodle coleslaw recipe she shared with me that year. I always think of her when I make it. My husband Bruce used to just call her “Shoot” because she always said, “Oh, shoot”. I’ll always have fond memories of Aunt Millie!
